

Françoise Point

Definable groups in generic differential expansions of geometric theories of fields

The purpose of this talk is to describe rather general conditions under which one can relate a definable group in a generic differential expansion of a geometric theory of fields to a definable group in the reduct. This is based on a joint work with K. Peterzil and A. Pillay.